

Federal Bar Association

New Orleans Chapter

27th Annual Judge Alvin B. Rubin Symposium

Location: U.S. District Court – EDLA, 500 Poydras Street, Rm. C-501

Date: 5/21/19

Time: 2-4pm

Description: Facebook and Beyond: Avoiding Ethical and Professional Pitfalls and Potholes in the Digital Age Please join the New Orleans Chapter of the Federal Bar Association on Tuesday, May 21, 2019 from 2:00-4:00 p.m. for a panel exploration of ethics and professionalism in the context of emerging technology and the use of social media. The Annual Judge Alvin B. Rubin Symposium is a living memorial to Judge Rubin's contribution to federal jurisprudence and legal scholarship. We are thrilled to celebrate the 27th anniversary of this ethics and professionalism program.

Speakers: James Brown, Liskow & Lewis Hon. Nannette Jolivet Brown, U.S. District Court – EDLA Steve Scheckman, Schiff, Scheckman & White LLP Rick Stanley, Stanley, Reuter, Ross, Thornton & Alford, L.L.C.

CLE: 1 hour of professionalism & 1 hour of ethics

Cost: $25-$65

RSVP: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/27th-annual-judge-alvin-b-rubin-symposium-tickets-59443542235>

Event Contact: Amanda Kaiser at 504-589-7990 or akaiser@nofba.org