

Federal Bar Association

New Orleans Chapter

Legal Issues Encountered in the Litigation of Recreational Boating Incidents

Location: U.S. District Court – EDLA, 500 Poydras Street, C-352

Date: May 22

Time: 4:30-5:30pm

Description: Join the Admiralty Law Committee of the New Orleans Chapter of the FBA for a one hour CLE on May 22nd at 4:30pm. Charles Bourque and Jedd Malish will present on Legal Issues Encountered in the Litigation of Recreational Boating Incidents. Moderated by Irving Warshauer, the program will focus on handling such claims from the plaintiff and defense side. This includes the jurisdictional, procedural and legal issues unique to these cases; accidents resulting in death and the recoverable state law damages; and the issues when alcohol and/or drug use are involved. Following the CLE, attendees are invited to walk next door to Lafayette Square to enjoy free live music at Wednesday at the Square.

Speakers: Charles Bourque, Jedd Malish and Irving Warshauer (moderator)

CLE: 1 hour

Cost: $10-$30

RSVP: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/legal-issues-encountered-in-the-litigation-of-recreational-boating-incidents-tickets-60433082978>

Event Contact: Amanda Kaiser at 504-589-7990 or akaiser@nofba.org