13th Annual Criminal Law Seminar

Location: Jury Assembly Room - Federal Courthouse

Date: May 23, 2019

Time: 8:30am-4pm

Description: The Utah Chapter of the Federal Bar Association presents the 13th Annual Criminal Law Seminar, set for Thursday, May 23, 2019, from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm. The seminar will be held at the Federal Courthouse in the Jury Assembly Room. The Chapter is looking forward to this year's agenda, which will include presentations from Chief Judge Robert Shelby, Magistrate Judge Dustin Pead, U.S. Attorney John Huber, Interim Federal Public Defender Scott Keith Wilson, Brian Besser, the DEA District Agent in Charge, and various criminal practitioners and probation officers. Agenda is attached. One of the highlights of this year's agenda will be Ron Stallworth, author of "Black k Klansman: A Memoir." How might you have heard of Mr. Stallworth? Probably from the Oscars! His work as a police officer was the basis for the movie "BlacKkKlansman", written and directed by Spike Lee (which received an Oscar for best Adapted Screenplay).
