

Your Membership is Almost Due

Hi - just a quick reminder that your FBA membership renewal date is coming up on June 30. I see many names on this renewal list that I'm almost certain plan to renew, and we're looking forward to seeing you at upcoming events!

As you know, being a member of the FBA gives you access to many informative and enlightening speaker and CLE events, along with providing a network of federal practitioners to socialize and discuss ideas with. You don't want to miss the great events we have planned for the upcoming year. Our annual "Morning at the Courthouse" event will be either in late June or early July (we had a scheduling conflict with the state court event so we're working on finalizing a date). Also – on July 9, from 5:30-7:30, there will be a joint event with the Central Florida Bankruptcy Law Association at the Bankruptcy courthouse which will showcase Odili Odita's mural, and museum-quality historical exhibits which will be installed this month. The Reception is a great opportunity for members of CFBLA to network with members of the Orlando Chapter of the Federal Bar Association and members of the local arts communities, and to meet federal judges sitting throughout the District.

I've attached a renewal form; however, you can renew faster and easier online through the link below and logging into your account:

<https://members.fedbar.org/eweb/DynamicPage.aspx?WebCode=LoginRequired&expires=yes&Site=FBA>

*If you do not plan to renew and want me to stop pestering you, please shoot me a quick email back or give me a call and I'll take you off the list (in which case, I'd appreciate any feedback you are willing to share regarding your decision to not renew – we want to be sure we are providing events and CLE's that appeal to the entire membership).

Best regards,
Kelly – Membership Chair