Mentorship Commitment Form

By completing this Commitment Form and signing below you are agreeing to adhere to the mentorship responsibilities outlined on this page.

As mentoring partners, it is important that you have a shared understanding of the commitment you are both making to your mentoring relationship. A successful mentorship relationship will require you to:

- Commit to the formal relationship for six months (September – April)
- Commit to talking with and/or meeting at least once per month with your mentoring partner
- Respect the confidential nature of all information discussed during mentoring meetings
- Complete mentorship evaluation forms in January and April
- Report any problems or concerns to the FBA (mentorship@fedbar.org) that you are not able to solve yourselves
- Recognize that this mentoring relationship is focused on building positive relationships and sharing information to the best of your abilities
- Engage in the relationship with an open mind and willingness to contribute to the relationship
- Contact your mentoring partner if you are unable to keep regular or scheduled meetings
