

Membership in the Veterans and Military Law Section

by Sherri Marie Carr

Sherri Marie Carr serves on the Federal Bar Association Constitution, Bylaws, Rules and Resolution Standing Committee.

We ask that you tell others about our section and invite your contacts, colleagues, friends, and acquaintances to join us in the Veterans and Military Law Section.

There are currently 195 members in the section. We come from varied backgrounds and experiences. We have an abundance to offer new and old members, veterans, military members, and the Federal Bar Association, by way of information, connections, writing opportunities, advocacy, and many other resources and prospects.

If you have questions about joining the Veterans and Military Law Section please contact Section Chair Jim Richardson or Membership Committee Chairman Sherri Marie Carr. The officers' contact information is listed here: <http://www.fedbar.org/Sections/Veterans-Law-Section/Officers.aspx>.

To join the Federal Bar Association please visit <http://www.fedbar.org/Membership/Member-Resources.aspx>.

Or, if someone is already a member of the Federal Bar Association but not a member of this section, they can join our section by visiting <https://members.fedbar.org/eweb/DynamicPage.aspx?WebCode=LoginRequired&expires=yes&Site=FBA>.

We hope our section roster will continue to grow with new members and that our current and new members continue to experience the benefits of belonging to this section. ☺

Deloitte.

Move forward with confidence US tax reform: Your path starts here

The new tax law increases both the complexity and potential opportunity in your tax planning. Now more than ever, you need to undertake proactive tax planning for the changing path ahead. Through a combination of advisory services, insights, and proprietary modeling tools, Deloitte helps you understand your starting position, analyze your options, plan and execute your next steps, and monitor future tax law and regulatory changes.

www.deloitte.com/us/taxreform

