

Sections and Divisions

Top: Section Division Award Winners: Leaders of sections and divisions that excelled this year collected the Outstanding Section/Division Award at the 2017 Annual Meeting and Convention in Atlanta. Bottom left: International Law Section: Board Members of the International Law Section gather for a meeting on the second day of the 2017 Annual Meeting and Convention in September. Bottom right: Younger Lawyers Division: Board members of the Younger Lawyers Division pose with two winners of the Young Federal Lawyer Award and the recipient of the 2017 Robyn Spalter Award.

Sections and Divisions at Annual Meeting and Convention

Several sections and division leaders attended the 2017 Annual Meeting and Convention in Atlanta. In addition to attending section- or division-specific meetings, many sections and divisions were awarded an Outstanding Section/Division Award. This year's recipients were the Admiralty Law Section, Bankruptcy Law Section, Civil Rights Law Section, Federal Litigation Section, International Law Section, Labor & Employment Law Section, Law Student Division, Qui Tam Section, Transportation & Transportation Security Law Section, and Younger Lawyers Division.

In addition to the sections and divisions that were recognized, the Younger Lawyers Division awarded five individuals the Younger Federal Lawyer of the Year Award. This year's recipients are Andrew R. Haden, Chase Scolnick, Helen H. Hong, Joseph F. Adams, and Saritha Komatireddy. The Younger Lawyers Division also recognized Matthew B. Moreland with the 2017 Robyn Spalter Award.

Congratulations to all of this year's outstanding awardees! ☺

Veterans & Military Law Section (l to r): Jim Richardson, Alan Goldsmith, Carol Scott, Bob DeSousa and Frank McGovern attend the 2017 Annual Meeting and Convention.