FIFTH CIRCUIT

Mississippi Chapter

Luncheon Features Judge Southwick

The Mississippi Chapter met for lunch at the Capital Club in Jackson, Miss., on Jan. 22, 2013, with Judge Leslie Southwick of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals as the speaker to an overflow crowd. Judge Southwick explored the topic of en banc proceedings at the Fifth Circuit and explained the mechanical workings of how en banc proceedings come about, how they proceed, and their effect. Most interesting was his revelation of the impact of a tie vote at the en banc proceeding. Judge Southwick is a popular speaker who displays the ability to combine substantive analysis, insights, and humor to form a presentation that is always enthusiastically received by the members of the chapter.

New Chapter Officers Installed

The Mississippi Chapter installed its new officers at its luncheon meeting on Jan. 22, 2013. Ryan Beckett assumed the presidency, Kate Margolis became the vice-president, Professor Meta Copeland took the reins as the treasurer, and Mike Hurst became the secretary and membership chair. These officers will serve for calendar year 2013.
