

FEDERAL LITIGATION SECTION

New England Leadership Meeting

The first-ever New England Leadership Meeting of the FBA's Federal Litigation Section (FLS) took place at the offices of Duffy & Sweeney in Providence, R.I., the morning and lunch hour of October 4, 2013. Section, Circuit, and Chapter leaders from Massachusetts; Connecticut; Maine; New Hampshire; Vermont and Rhode Island—including District Chief Judge William Smith and Clerk of the Court David DiMarzio. FLS Chair Rob Kohn from Los Angeles and the FLS Chapter Contact Leader Aaron Bulloff from Cleveland attended. Also in attendance were President Gelpí, Executive Director Silberman, and Stefanie Moon from Florida, each by telephone. The meeting centered around planning for the 2014 FBA Annual Meeting and Convention in Providence and regional chapter programming and services to the New England Bench, profession and public. The Federal Litigation Section is in the process of scheduling additional Regional Leadership Meetings in other parts of the country in 2014, dates and locales to be announced.

IMMIGRATION LAW SECTION

Immigration Leadership Monthly Luncheon Series

On October 9, 2013, the Immigration Law Section and the FBA D.C. Chapter presented their continued Immigration Leadership Monthly Luncheon Series program in Washington, D.C., with speaker Raphael Choi, Office of Chief Counsel, Immigration and Customs Enforcement Office of the Principal Legal Advisor. The program opened with welcome and introduction by Prakash Khatri, attorney, Washington, D.C., FBA DC Chapter. The Immigration Leadership monthly luncheons are held on the second Wednesday of every month in Washington, D.C.

Rome Conference: Citizenship in a Global Era

The Immigration Law Section once again partnered with the John Felice Rome Center, Loyola University Chicago School of Law, and Stanford University Arthur and Toni Rembe Rock Center for Corporate Governance and presented the conference entitled "Citizenship in a Global Era." The event explored citizenship and nationality questions in various contexts and took place at the Palazzo Antici Mattei, home of the Centro di Studi Americani in Rome, Italy. ©
