

Federal Bar Association

Intellectual Property Law Section

Federal Circuit Event in DC March 25 | 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

The Federal Bar Association's Intellectual Property Law Section is hosting an in-person informative program at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in Washington, D.C. on March 25th from 3:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Participants will have the opportunity to meet with Judge Leonard Stark and potentially other members of the court for a moderated discussion about practice before the Federal Circuit, including insights into appellate advocacy and court procedures.

Space is limited. To RSVP for this free program, email sections@fedbar.org by March 20. Please provide your full name and the name of your firm/organization, so it can be provided in advance to the Court.

Location:

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit
717 Madison Place, NW
Washington, DC 20439

We hope you can join us on March 25 for this exciting program!

P.S. If your schedule permits, please consider volunteering to be a judge for the 2026 Moot Court Competition. Law schools from across the country participate in this prestigious event, and it is because of the dedication of volunteers like you that this event has been such a success. Judges are needed for the evening of March 25 at the H. Carl Moultrie Courthouse, 500 Indiana Avenue NW, Washington DC. View this link for more details and to sign up. Thank you!