

Federal Bar Association
Labor & Employment
Law Section

Dear Section Members:

Join your Labor and Employment Law colleagues from around the country – and even out in the Atlantic – for a virtual social event focusing on Bermuda, the former British colony home to a bustling reinsurance business. On September 18, 2025, at 6:00pm EST, Section Deputy Chair Jon Wall from Greensboro, North Carolina, will lead a discussion.

Dark ‘n Stormy

First, you’ll learn how to make the perfect Dark ‘n Stormy, the Island’s favorite libation made with Gosling’s Black Seal Rum and ginger beer, preferably Barritt’s Ginger Beer or Gosling’s Ginger Beer. Try to have those items, and a cut lime if you please, on hand. Wall will provide a little background on the drink, and some of the other offerings from Gosling’s.

We’ll also have Bermuda employment lawyer Sarah Blair with Conyers global law firm on hand. Blair will explain the differences in practicing employment law in Bermuda versus the United States. Yes, they have solicitors and barristers, and occasionally you might need to wear a wig. Join us for what should be an informative and fun social hour!

Please RSVP to sections@fedbar.org

In addition, local Chapters are invited to host in-person events where they will virtually connect to the Dark ‘n Stormy presentation. If your chapter agrees to host a local event, you will receive more details directly from your chapter.

Please contact Kate Marples Simpson at kmarples@gmail.com with any questions.
