

FIFTH CIRCUIT

Mississippi

The July meeting of the Mississippi Chapter featured federal Magistrate Judge Mike Parker, who spoke to an overflow crowd about his judicial philosophy, offered his insights into federal practice, and gave some pointers and suggestions to the practitioners in the group. The chapter bid President Colby Lane farewell as he departs to pursue an MBA degree at Stanford University. Dean Jim Rosenblatt will act as president until the elections.

ELEVENTH CIRCUIT

North Central Florida

On April 8, the North Central Florida Chapter, in conjunction with the University of Florida Levin College of Law, hosted a half-day program of “techno fun” entitled “Federal Practice in the Electronic Age: Don’t Be a Dinosaur.” The CLE was divided into three panels with guest speakers addressing topics relevant to practicing law in the “electronic age.” Attorneys Bill Hamilton and Adam Losey provided an overview of current electronic discovery issues and conducted a mock Rule 26(f) conference. Attorneys Carl Schwait and Mary K. Wimsett and University of Florida law professor Teresa Rambo provided guidance on ethical use of web and social media advertising and addressed First Amendment implications and application of the current and proposed Model Rule of Professional Conduct 4-7 to web and social media advertising. Charles Snipes wrapped up the event with a discussion of computer forensics and demonstrated a forensic computer analysis. TFL
