Immigration Law Section

Immigration Leadership Monthly Luncheon

On Feb. 20, the Immigration Law Section and the D.C. Chapter of the Federal Bar Association held their first Immigration Leadership Monthly Luncheon of 2013 in downtown Washington, D.C. This program is the first in a series that will be held on the third Wednesday of every month at Tony Cheng's Restaurant at Gallery Place. Prakash Khatri, board member of both the Immigration Law Section and D.C. Chapter, gave welcoming remarks. H. Raymand Fasano, chair of the Immigration Law Section, then introduced the speaker, Juan P. Osuna. Presently, Osuna teaches immigration policy at George Mason University School of Law. His remarks at the luncheon, however, concerned his experiences as the director of the Executive Office for Immigration Review, a position which Osuna held from December 2010 to May 2011.

Transportation and Transportation Security Law Section

Transportation Security Legislative Agenda for the 113th Congress

On Feb. 12, the Transportation and Transportation Security Law Section presented the program Transportation Security Legislative Agenda for the 113th Congress. The event took place at the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) headquarters in Arlington, Va. The program featured opening remarks from Francine J. Kerner, chief counsel for the Transportation Security Administration, and then keynote speaker John S. Pistole, administrator for the Transportation Security Administration. The main panel was moderated by Sarah Dietch, assistant administrator, Office of Legislative Affairs, Transportation Security Administration. Dietch was joined by key congressional staffers from the House and Senate Homeland Security, Commerce, and Appropriations Committees and discussed the critical issues in transportation. A tour of the Transportation Systems Integration Facility (TSIF) at Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport was available to all attendees after the program. ☺

Become a Member of the Supreme Court Bar

Tuesday, May 28, 2013

The Younger Lawyers Division is hosting its annual Supreme Court Admissions Ceremony at the Court. As in years past, we will be inviting the Justices to join us for a breakfast reception after the ceremony. Although the Younger Lawyers Division sponsors this event, FBA members of all ages and levels of practice are welcome to participate.
