FIFTH CIRCUIT

Mississippi Chapter

Monthly Chapter Meetings

The chapter's November meeting was held in Oxford and featured the judges of the Northern District of Mississippi. The luncheon meeting was attended by more than 70 attorneys and judges, many of whom later attended the annual CLE hosted by Chief Judge Michael Mills. Chief Judge Mills spoke at the luncheon meeting and offered an update on matters in the Northern District to include budget planning as well as a description of the role played by the Mississippi Chapter in supporting his plan to realign the divisions in the Northern District.

At its December meeting, the Mississippi

Chapter honored J.T. Noblin, who is retiring as the U.S. District Court clerk for the Southern District of Mississippi. The overflow crowd came to the Capital Club to pay special tribute to this long-serving clerk for whom there is universal respect and admiration. A number of speakers offered highlights of J.T.'s career with a mix of serious and humorous accounts. The turnout was the largest for the chapter in five years and resulted in several new memberships.
