IMMIGRATION LAW SECTION

On Oct. 8, the Immigration Law Section and the District of Columbia Chapter presented their monthly Immigration Leadership Luncheon Series in Washington, D.C. The event featured speaker Brian Hunt, deputy chief of the Advisory Opinions Division in the Legal Affairs section of the visa office in the Bureau of Consular Affairs at the State Department. The Advisory Opinions Division is a group of eight attorneys who provide legal counsel on immigration issues for consular officers overseas and for domestic clients such as KCC, NVC, LegalNet, and law enforcement. The division is the primary source of legal advice for consular officers worldwide, who adjudicated more than 12 million visa applications last year. The Immigration Leadership luncheons are generally held on the second Wednesday of every month at La Tasca Restaurant. The series is coordinated by Prakash Khatri, attorney, Washington, D.C.

Department of Transportation in Washington, D.C. Panelists included Sheryl Israel, Hogan Lovells; Scott Mitchell, Federal Aviation Administration; Greg Stofko, FedEx; and Emily Su, Transportation Security Administration. The event was moderated by Lisa Harig, McBreen and Kopko. ©

Federal Bar Association CAPITOL HILL DAY

Thursday, April 30, 2015

PROGRAM

Plan to participate in this important event as FBA leaders from across the country meet with House and Senate offices to discuss important FBA legislative issues that impact the administration of justice and the federal courts. FBA Capitol Hill Day is becoming more popular each year. Don't miss out!

During meetings on Capitol Hill, FBA participants will advocate for: adequate funding for the federal courts, filling judicial vacancies promptly, and sufficient judgeships to render justice.

Participants in FBA Capitol Hill Day are responsible for scheduling their meetings with their Senate and House offices in advance of the event. Feedback on these meetings will be distilled during the Group Debriefing at the end of the day.

Between meetings, participants will have the opportunity to visit the Senate and House galleries, as well as the Capitol Visitors Center.

Participants in Capitol Hill Day are responsible for their travel and lodging in connection with this event.
