

Sections and Divisions

THE FEDERAL CAREER SERVICE DIVISION

On Jan. 23, the Federal Career Service Division co-sponsored the Baltimore/Washington, D.C., Public Service Career Fair along with American University Washington College of Law, Catholic University Columbus School of Law, George Mason University School of Law, Howard University School of Law, University of the District of Columbia–David A. Clarke School of Law, and University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law. The event featured more than 60 employers as well as individual interviews, table talk opportunities, and resume collections for all attendees

TRANSPORTATION AND TRANSPORTATION SECURITY LAW SECTION

On Feb. 3, the Transportation and Transportation Security Law Section presented its Lunch and Learn Series program at the Department of Transportation headquarters in Washington, D.C. The event featured speaker Reginald C. Govan, chief counsel of the Federal Aviation Administration. The Office of the Chief Counsel provides legal advice in support of the FAA administrator and all agency operations at headquarters, regions and centers. The FAA office also serves as the administrator's for civil penalty and acquisition disputes and works with the Department of Transportation's Office of the General Counsel on issues of national significance to the aviation industry. Govan has a varied legal practice background as a corporate counsel, litigator, and legislative counsel. Prior to joining the FAA, he served as managing associate general counsel of Freddie Mac, where he managed the employment law function and provided advice and counsel in support of a broad range of strategic business initiatives pertaining to regulatory compliance, systemic risk mitigation, workforce restructuring, compensation, diversity, succession planning, and employee retention.

(Left to right) Thomas Lehigh, Transportation and Transportation Security Law Section chair; Reginald C. Govan, chief counsel, Federal Aviation Administration; and Monica Hargrove, deputy general counsel at The Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority, at the February Lunch and Learn Series event.

The Federal Bar Association's table at January's Baltimore/Washington, D.C., Public Service Career Fair.

SECTION ON TAXATION

On Feb. 20, the Section on Taxation presented Current Developments Involving Section 199 at the Pepper Hamilton Penthouse in Washington, D.C. The event featured speakers L. Ellen McElroy, Pepper Hamilton; George Manosous, PricewaterhouseCoopers; Chanel Edwards, BlackRock; Paul Handleman, IRS chief counsel; James Holmes, IRS chief counsel; and Ken Beck, U.S. Treasury.