TENTH CIRCUIT

New Mexico Chapter

2nd Annual CLE at the Movies Features 'Citizenfour' and Panel Discussion Facilitated by Judge Fouratt

On Oct. 14, 2016, the New Mexico Chapter hosted a CLE offering a special theater showing of the movie "Citizenfour" and a panel discussion giving insight into Edward Snowden's decision to reveal classified documents about the National Security Agency. The program also included remarks from Dana Gold, a senior fellow at the Government Accountability Project; Nancy Hollander, lead counsel in the Wikileaks' whistleblower Chelsea Manning's appeal; and Robert Gorence, a former U.S. attorney who investigated the Edward Lee Howard espionage case. The panel, facilitated by Magistrate Judge Gregory J. Fouratt, engaged in robust discussion of issues raised by the film. The CLE had many attendees, including Judge Harris L. Hartz of the Tenth Circuit Court. ☺

Southern District of Georgia Chapter

Kickoff Event and Naturalization Ceremony

On Nov. 10, 2016, the Southern District of Georgia Chapter held its Kickoff Event and

Naturalization Ceremony in Savannah, Ga. Judge Denny Chin of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals did a wonderful job sharing his personal story at the naturalization ceremony, and he also spoke at the Savannah Law School to students and faculty. A local high school's all-girls cappella chorus, The Skylarks, performed the "National Anthem" and "America the Beautiful." The chapter and the FBA Foundation hosted a cocktail reception at the ceremony, and the officers took Judge Chin to dinner afterward. It was a wonderful event, and we hope to build off of it for future events and programs. ☺

ELEVENTH CIRCUIT

Broward County Chapter

Luncheon Meeting With George Piro, Special Agent in Charge, FBI Miami Division

On Nov. 17, 2016, the Broward County Chapter hosted George Piro, special agent in charge, FBI Miami Division. Piro spoke to the group about his role as the lead interrogator of Saddam Hussein and about the FBI's counterterrorism efforts. ☺
