The Federal Circuit Bar Association, the Atlanta Bar Association, the Georgia State Bar, and several Georgia Law Schools are pleased to welcome the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit to Atlanta in the first week in November 2010.

In conjunction with sittings by the Court during its visit, the respective bar associations will present a cross-disciplinary Continuing Legal Education (CLE) program, The Federal Practitioner's Institute, at the Four Seasons Hotel in Atlanta on the afternoon of November 3, 2010.

Following the CLE program offered in the afternoon, there will be a reception and dinner at 5:30 p.m. welcoming representatives of the Court and others. The reception and dinner will also be convened at the Four Seasons Hotel in Atlanta. The dress code for the Institute and dinner is business attire (suit and tie).

The Court will convene hearings on actual cases at the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia starting approximately 10:00am on November 3, 2010. These hearings are open to the public. Prior to these hearings, the respective bar organizations will host a free briefing seminar that will address the cases which will be covered by the Court that day.

Registration for the Case Briefing at the Northern District of Georgia and the Institute and Dinner can be made on the reverse. A person may register for a single event, a combination of events, or all three events. The Federal Circuit Bar Association gratefully acknowledges the Atlanta Bar Association's assistance in coordinating registrations for the paid events.
