Biography:

Horst G. Greczmiel joined the Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) in November 1999 as the Associate Director for National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) Oversight. He is responsible for overseeing and implementing the NEPA and CEQ mandates to ensure that federal agencies integrate environmental values into decision-making. He served as the Director of the NEPA Task Force from 2002-05. He is developing and implementing initiatives and guidance designed to improve the implementation of NEPA as part of 40th Anniversary of NEPA. Current initiatives include NEPA guidance (see http://ceq.hss.doe.gov/current_developments/new_ceq_nepa_guidance.html) and NEPA pilots (see <http://www.whitehouse.gov/administration/eop/ceq/initiatives/nepa/nepa-pilot-project>).

Prior to joining CEQ, he worked in the Office of Environmental Law at Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington, DC, responsible for policy development and litigation involving environmental planning compliance responsibilities under NEPA, the Endangered Species Act, and the National Historic Preservation Act. Mr. Greczmiel served in the U.S. Army for fifteen years, including tours with the Office of The Judge Advocate General's Environmental Law Division and a detail as environmental advisor to the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Environment, Safety and Occupational Health.

Mr. Greczmiel received his B.A. from Lafayette College, Easton, PA; J.D. from Rutgers - Camden School of Law, Camden, NJ; and LL.M. in environmental law from George Washington University, Washington, DC.
