

Federal Bar Association's Transportation and Transportation Security Law Section
Meeting Minutes for January 17, 2012

I. Call to Order

Hector Huezo, Section Chair, called to order the Meeting of the Transportation and Transportation Security Law Section of the Federal Bar Association at 12:30 p.m. EST on January 17, 2012, at the U.S. Department of Transportation.

II. Roll Call

The following persons were present: Sherwin Valerio, Nancy Kessler, Hector Huezo, Thomas Lehrich, Monica Hargrove, Alice Koethe, Julie Tran, and Stacie Tiongson.

III. The submitted Minutes for the December 20, 2011 meeting were amended and approved by the Board.

IV. The Board voted unanimously for the motion to post meeting Minutes for Section members only.

V. The Chair reported on FBA recruitments and welcome letters were sent to new members in November and December.

VI. Aviation Security Forum, February 28th

Thomas updated Board members on the progress of the forum. The Board discussed registration fees and agreed upon the following: $10 charge for non-governmental and non-FBA members, $5 for FBA members, and free for federal government officials.

VII. FBA Goes to Law School

As a part of the lunch series, possible program topics were discussed such as security law, high-speed rail, and bankruptcy (airlines and others). There was an agreement among the Board members that a May or July lunch program topic could be security law because any closer would be too soon, considering the Security Law Forum in February.

VIII. Year Report

Nancy, Hector, and Monica reported on the effort to recruit new members into the FBA. Stacie introduced herself to the members of the Board.

IX. Treasurer's Report

The report was not discussed as it was not updated during the time of the meeting. However, it will be updated this week.

X. TransLaw

The Board discussed ideas and topics for journal articles as well as possible contributors.

XI. Indian Law Section will be hosting a program in April.

XII. Adjourned- Meeting was adjourned at 1:25 p.m.
