DEFINITIONS

IMMIGRATION JUDGE

INA § 101(b)(4) The term "immigration judge" means an attorney whom the Attorney General appoints as an administrative judge within the Executive Office for Immigration Review, qualified to conduct specified classes of proceedings, including a hearing under section 1229a of this title. An immigration judge shall be subject to such supervision and shall perform such duties as the Attorney General shall prescribe, but shall not be employed by the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

8 CFR §1003.10(a) Appointment. The immigration judges are attorneys whom the Attorney General appoints as administrative judges within the Office of the Chief Immigration Judge to conduct specified classes of proceedings, including hearings under section 240 of the Act. Immigration judges shall act as the Attorney General's delegates in the cases that come before them.

(b) Powers and duties. In conducting hearings under section 240 of the Act and such other proceedings the Attorney General may assign to them, immigration judges shall exercise the powers and duties delegated to them by the Act and by the Attorney General through regulation. In deciding the individual cases before them, and subject to the applicable governing standards, immigration judges shall exercise their independent judgment and discretion and may take any action consistent with their authorities under the Act and regulations that is appropriate and necessary for the disposition of such cases. Immigration judges shall administer oaths, receive evidence, and interrogate, examine, and cross-examine aliens and any witnesses. Subject to §§ 1003.35 and 1287.4 of this chapter, they may issue administrative subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the presentation of evidence. In all cases, immigration judges shall seek to resolve the questions before them in a timely and impartial manner consistent with the Act and regulations.

(c) Review. Decisions of immigration judges are subject to review by the Board of Immigration Appeals in any case in which the Board has jurisdiction as provided in 8 CFR 1003.1.

(d) Governing standards. Immigration judges shall be governed by the provisions and limitations prescribed by the Act and this chapter, by the decisions of the Board, and by the Attorney General (through review of a decision of the Board, by written order, or by determination and ruling pursuant to section 103 of the Act).

Immigration Judges preside over the following proceedings:

- Removal
- Deportation
- Exclusion
- Rescission
- Asylum
- Temporary Protected Status
- Adjustment of Status
- Custody, Bond
- Attorney Discipline
- Credible Fear Review
- Reasonable Fear Review

DEFINITIONS

BOARD OF IMMIGRATION APPEALS

8 CFR § 1003.1(a)(1) Organization. There shall be in the Department of Justice a Board of Immigration Appeals, subject to the general supervision of the Director, Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR). The Board members shall be attorneys appointed by the Attorney General to act as the Attorney General's delegates in the cases that come before them. The Board shall consist of 17 members. A vacancy, or the absence or unavailability of a Board member, shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of the Board.⁸

8 CFR § 1003.1(a)(3) Panels. The Chairman shall divide the Board into three-member panels and designate a presiding member of each panel if the Chairman or Vice Chairman is not assigned to the panel. The Chairman may from time to time make changes in the composition of such panels and of presiding members. Each three-member panel shall be empowered to decide cases by majority vote, and a majority of the Board members assigned to the panel shall constitute a quorum for such panel. In addition, the Chairman shall assign any number of Board members, as needed, to serve on the screening panel to implement the case management process as provided in paragraph (e) of this section.

8 CFR 1003.1(d) Powers of the Board—(1) Generally. The Board shall function as an appellate body charged with the review of those administrative adjudications under the Act that the Attorney General may by regulation assign to it. The Board shall resolve the questions before it in a manner that is timely, impartial, and consistent with the Act and regulations. In addition, the Board, through precedent decisions, shall provide clear and uniform guidance to the Service, the immigration judges, and the general public on the proper interpretation and administration of the Act and its implementing regulations.

(i) The Board shall be governed by the provisions and limitations prescribed by applicable law, regulations, and procedures, and by decisions of the Attorney General (through review of a decision of the Board, by written order, or by determination and ruling pursuant to section 103 of the Act).

(ii) Subject to these governing standards, Board members shall exercise their independent judgment and discretion in considering and determining the cases coming before the Board, and a panel or Board member to whom a case is assigned may take any action consistent with their authorities under the Act and the regulations as is appropriate and necessary for the disposition of the case.

Immigration Nuts & Bolts

Supplemental starter materials

Motions/Bonds

Common Motions

- Bond Motions
- Motions to Change Venue
- Motions for Telephonic Appearance
- Motions for Termination or Administrative Closure
- Motions for Continuances
- Motions to Reopen/Reconsider
- Motions to Suppress Evidence
- Motions to clear/close courtroom
- Motions to advance court date

Practical Tips:

Always check EOIR Practice Manual customized court requirements and local practice

Seek DHS's position on the motion prior to filing: no objection? stipulation?

Be clear and concise about what you want the IJ to do

Specify the facts: who, what, when, where, why

Support your reasoning with evidence, including declarations, applications for relief , character reference letters

Submit a proposed order

Motion to Change Venue

- Venue lies where the charging document is filed by the Service – 8 CFR §§ 1003.14(a), 1003.20(a): typically where the Respondent resides or is detained- except, for example, in the wild west where the court's jurisdiction straddles several states
- Applicable standard is good cause
- Matter of Rahman, 20 I&N Dec. 480 (BIA 1992)
- Assess access to counsel, administrative convenience, location of Respondent and witnesses, efficiency, cost of transporting witness or evidence
- Know local practice
- Survey with local counsel
- Be prepared to be required to enter pleadings as a condition of grant of motion and carefully consider the attendant consequences

Motions for Telephonic Hearing/Testimony

Attorneys may be permitted to appear telephonically for Master Calendar Hearings or under other exceptional circumstances

Check with requirements of the Court for these Motions-a written Motion may be required

Witness telephonic testimony-file a written motion far enough in advance, of course

Different preparation for Expert or Lay witnesses

Provide the witness's name, telephone number, address
Detail with supporting documents the reasons why the witness cannot appear in person and why their testimony is important to the case

Provide a written summary and estimated length of testimony-BE CAREFUL that writing will be consistent with testimony

Specify the language used by the witness to permit for interpreter assignment

Present a CV if the witness is an expert

Motions to Suppress

- Evidence is only admissible if it is probative and its use is fundamentally fair
- Matter of Ramirez Sanchez, 17 I&N Dec. 503, 505 (BIA 1980); Matter of Toro, 17 I&N Dec. 340 (BIA 1980)
- The exclusionary rule generally does not apply in civil immigration proceedings but evidence obtained through egregious violations of due process may be suppressed
- INS v. Lopez-Mendoza, 468 U.S. 1032 (1984)

ICE Processing

- 1. Person is processed at ICE – ERO office locations found at :
- 2. Three documents issued to those to be placed in removal proceedings:
 - Warrant to Arrest Alien (Form I-120)
 - Notice to Appear (Form I-862)
 - Custody Determination (Form I-286)
- 3. Released or Detained

Bond Eligibility

Who is NOT eligible for a bond?

“Arriving aliens”

Although not bond-eligible, may be other mechanisms for release from custody

Noncitizens with final orders of removal

Reinstatement of removal

Execution of outstanding order

Those subject to mandatory detention under INA 236(c)

Familiarize yourself with how to challenge mandatory detention and release options for bond-ineligible clients

Questions to ask yourself before pursuing a bond hearing:

- Is the client bond-eligible,
- What are risks to requesting bond redetermination?
 - Risk of revocation
 - Risk of bond increase rather than reduction
 - Lengthening process
- Can the client/supporters pay a bond and get it posted?

Starter Notes on Bonds

Initial bond determination is made by the ICE Office of Detention and Removal with jurisdiction over the place of arrest. 8 C.F.R. § 236.1(d) ICE can reconsider/re-determine initial bond and must serve new custody determination on respondent

Bond amount is set by Immigration & Customs Enforcement (ICE) or an Immigration Judge

ICE refers to it as a “delivery bond”

Minimum bond is $1,500; no maximum amount

Current range in Denver May 2019 is $3500-$20000

DHS custody and bond determinations may be reviewed by an Immigration Judge – 8 CFR § 1236

The purpose of the bond is to guarantee that the person released from detention will attend all future immigration court hearings, report to Immigration if asked to do so, and leave the United States if the Immigration Judge orders removal.

You can request a bond hearing before an NTA is filed with the Court or your client has his/her first hearing. 8 CFR 1003.19(b). If client is already on the docket, can ask for bond hearing at initial Master. 8 CFR 1003.19(b).

Normally each Respondent gets only one bond hearing. If good cause is established for failure to be prepared for bond hearing, court may reset. A bond redetermination motion can be filed if there has been a “material change in circumstances.” 8 C.F.R. § 1003.19(e).

Bond Hearing

- Bond hearing is separate & apart from hearing on the merits. 8 CFR 1003.19(d)
 - Conducted off the record, so take good notes for appeal
- IJ can consider any information that is available or that is presented. 8 CFR 100.19(d)
 - Can include info not in NTA
 - See IJ Bond questionnaire-IJ Benchbook
<https://www.justice.gov/eoir/page/file/987991/download>
- Must demonstrate the Respondent is:
 - Not subject to mandatory detention
 - Not a danger to the community;
 - Not a flight risk. 8 C.F.R. §1236.1(c)(8)

Bond Hearing Preparation

- Review NTA & Notice of Custody Determination
- Obtain & review conviction documents/police reports
- Prepare legal arguments
- Interview Respondent
- Interview potential witnesses
- Assemble evidence:
 - Civil documents (birth and marriage certificates); family and community ties; prior immigration history, arrests, convictions, appearances at hearings; employment history; membership in community organizations; manner of entry and length of time in the U.S.; good moral character attributes; rehabilitation/remorse – release plan?; compelling humanitarian factors (eg medical or psychological conditions summarized in doctors' letters); financial ability to post bond; eligibility for relief
 - IJ will consider Matter of Patel, 15 I&N Dec. 666 (BIA 1976)
- Include letters of support, proof of family members' immigration status, school records with English translations
- Translate any documents that are not in English
- Confirm compliance with EOIR Practice Manual requirements

Bond Hearing Do's and Don'ts

DO

- Thoroughly interview and prepare client in advance of hearing
- Assemble full criminal history
- Thoroughly and persuasively present your case
- Prepare person posting bond for posting process

DON'T

- Disregard the importance of the bond hearing OR the effort involved
- Proceed until fully prepared
- “Hide” negative or damaging information
- Submit supporting letters and documents that you have not thoroughly reviewed for accuracy
- Rely solely on the information your client has provided
