Hidden Jobs on Capitol Hill

This panel is co-sponsored by the Capitol Hill Chapter and Labor and Employment Section of the Federal Bar Association. Capitol Hill is known for being a bastion for lawyers, but there are some legal jobs on the Hill that you may not be aware of. Hear about these positions from the attorneys who occupy them and learn about how they obtained their positions and what they do on a day-to-day basis. Panelists will include attorneys from the U.S. Department of Justice, the U.S. House of Representatives, the U.S. Senate, and the Smithsonian Institution.

Date: July 29, 2019
Time: 11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Location: Ford House Office Building, Room 483, 441 2nd St., S.W.,
Washington, D.C. 20002
Metro: The Ford House Office building is conveniently located across the street from the Federal Center SW metro station (Blue/Orange/Silver lines). Entrance is on 2nd Street S.W.

Careers in Tax Law Lunch Panel

The Section on Taxation of the Federal Bar Association, in partnership with the U.S. Tax Court, will host a lunch program for summer associates, law clerks, law students, and young lawyers who may be considering a career in tax law. Panelists will discuss their own career paths, provide advice, and give their perspective on the practice of federal tax law. Please bring a government-issued photo ID for security. Lunch will be provided. You must RSVP by July 23, 2019 to events@ustaxcourt.gov.
