

CRIMINAL LAW SCHOLARSHIP

Federal Bar Association
Criminal Law Section

The Criminal Law Section of the Federal Bar Association is offering a $1,000 scholarship for a graduating 3L student pursuing a career in criminal law.

Interested students should send a resume and cover letter to aalaghbari@fedbar.org. The cover letter should state the student's plans after graduation and how the student has shown an interest in criminal law during law school. Materials are due March 1, 2019. The winner will be announced by April 30, 2019.

The Federal Bar Association (FBA) is dedicated to promoting the welfare, interests, education, and professional development of attorneys involved in federal law. With more than 19,000 members—including 1,500 federal judges—its members run the gamut of federal practice, from small to large firms, corporations and federal agencies. The FBA has a Law Student Division. If interested, students can learn more at <http://www.fedbar.org/Divisions/Law-Student-Division.aspx>.

The FBA does not discriminate based upon race, color, creed, gender, sexual orientation, physical impairment, national or ethnic origin, or age.
