About the Federal Bar Association (FBA): The FBA is dedicated to the advancement of the science of jurisprudence and to promoting the welfare, interests, education, and professional development of all attorneys involved in federal law. Its members run the gamut of federal practice: attorneys practicing in small to large legal firms, attorneys in corporations and federal agencies, and members of the judiciary. The FBA is the catalyst for communication between the bar and the bench, as well as the private and public sectors. To Join the FBA, please go to www.fedbar.org and click on "join the FBA".

Brea Burgie

Brea Burgie began working for the Executive Office for Immigration Review in 2009, first as an Attorney Advisor at the Phoenix and Tucson Immigration Courts, and then as an Associate General Counsel in the Office of the General Counsel. She assumed the role of Fraud and Abuse Prevention Counsel in February 2016. Before joining EOIR, Brea was the Director of the Asylum Program of Arizona in Tucson, a program that provided representation for domestic violence and sexual assault survivors, as well as asylum seekers and refugees, throughout southern Arizona.
