Lunch-and-Learn:
How to Use Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16

Hon. Jeffrey L. Schmehl
Jeffrey R. Elliott, Esquire
Andrew N. Howe, Esquire

Monday, June 20, 2016
12:30 p.m.

William J. Green Jr. Federal Building
600 Arch Street
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16 is a “case management tool,” providing the court with significant authority to manage a litigation. But it also provides the lawyers an early opportunity to structure their cases to their client’s benefit. Join the Hon. Jeffrey L. Schmehl, Jeffrey R. Elliott, and Andrew N. Howe as they take you through Rule 16’s various provisions and gain practical knowledge about how Rule 16 can help or hurt your case.

Please use the entrance on Sixth Street. The presentation will be in Conference Rooms A and B on the second floor. Participants are invited to bring or buy a lunch from the cafeteria to enjoy while attending the program. Coffee, soda, and bottled water will be provided.

To RSVP, please email Karl Romberger at kromberger@sweetstevens.com
Cost: FBA Members $10. Non-members $25.

The Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board has approved this program for one hour of substantive CLE credit.
