

The Foundation of the Federal Bar Association

Chartered by Act Of Congress, August 24, 1954

The Robert A. McNew Law Student Scholarship

The Robert A. McNew Law Student Scholarship promotes the practice of federal law by awarding a scholarship of $5,000 to a law student attending an ABA accredited law school. The scholarship is named in honor of the Foundation of the Federal Bar Association past president and founder of the Fellows program, Robert A. McNew, who also served as president of the FBA and a director of the Federal Bar Building Corporation. Bob has been an active member of the FBA for more than 30 years and continues to support the Foundation in his retirement.

The scholarship is awarded to a current law student who is a Federal Bar Association law student associate member in good standing. Applicants must exhibit professionalism and high character in their personal and professional lives as demonstrated in application materials. Applicants must submit this application, a personal essay, transcript, and two letters of recommendation (these may include a letter from a professor). An award will be based on student participation in the FBA, law school, community activities, and academic achievement.

The deadline to submit this scholarship application and the required documentation to the Foundation of the Federal Bar Association is November 30. You may submit the application via e-mail to foundation@fedbar.org. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Name _____

Permanent Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Email _____

Telephone _____

Date of Birth _____

FBA member number _____

I am a law student in good standing at _____

My anticipated graduation date is _____

For the following, please attach a separate sheet(s).

1. Schools Attended (List all schools you have attended as an undergraduate, and if applicable, graduate level. Please include community college, if applicable. For each school, indicate the dates of attendance, degree(s) or diploma(s) received, major fields of study, and overall GPA.)

2. Work Experience (List your work experience, including part-time and/or summer positions, present employer first. (In addition, you may attach a current copy of your résumé, but this section below must also be completed).

3. Law School Organization Activities (List the organization name, years involved, and roles and responsibilities, including FBA Law student Division activities)

4. Non-College Community Service Activities (During the last five years, list organization name, years involved, any offices held and duration of tenure)

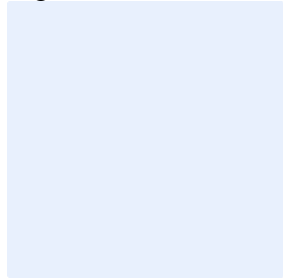

5. Honors and Awards Received (List the name of honor/award, year received, and description of the honor/award)

6. Personal Essay (Please include a personal essay that addresses any additional information that you would like the committee to know about yourself, such as the following topics. Essays must be limited to 500 words.)

- obstacles (including financial) that you have overcome in pursuing your education;
- qualities and talents that you will bring to the legal profession; and
- career goals and interest in practicing federal law

I certify that all information provided on this application and in the attached documentation is truthful and accurate.

Signature _____

Date _____