As our guests, you will have the opportunity to discover why Puerto Rico is one of the best places to host conventions. Aside from the world class services, the state-of-the-art infrastructure, and the professional staff, the hospitality of our people make us special, distinguishing the Island as a premier tourist destination.

As we cater to your needs during the proceedings of the Convention, we invite you to take time to savor the diverse flavors Puerto Rico has to offer. First of all, we encourage you to take a stroll down the beautiful streets of the historic Old San Juan. 3A 11:30 AM-12:30 PM: SAN GERONIMO A // FROM MUSKETS TO M-16S: THE HISTORY AND FUTURE CHALLENGES OF GUN POLICY

Stephen D. Stamboulieh, Mitchell Day Law Firm, PLLC

Presented by the Orlando Chapter

This program will cover the history of gun policy in the United States, including the Second Amendment, the National Firearms Act, the Gun Control Act, and recent Supreme Court decisions; essential background on the technology and terminology involved in regulating firearms; federal options for gun policy and violence reduction; and ongoing efforts by states to regulate and deregulate firearms.

3B 11:30 AM-12:30 PM: SAN GERONIMO C // AFFORDABLE CARE ACT

Amanda R. Cefalu, Partner, Anderson, Helgen, Davis & Nissen, PA // Michael T. Joliat, Associate, Anderson, Helgen, Davis & Nissen, PA // Pamela Nissen, Partner, Anderson, Helgen, Davis & Nissen, PA

This panel will present information on the implementation of the Affordable Care Act, addressing three areas of the legislation that are potential sources of litigation for employers and insurers. Under the Employer Shared Responsibility Tax, large employers may face significant taxes; the rules that implement this tax, however, are complex and untested. Until the rules are refined through litigation, we anticipate employer challenges to IRS assessments in federal tax court. Additionally, the Affordable Care Act affects insurers profoundly, subjecting them to a completely new regulatory regime. Finally, whistleblower provisions within the Affordable Care Act and the issues employers may anticipate in complying with these provisions will be discussed.

4A 2:15 PM-3:15 PM: SAN GERONIMO A // DAUBERT MOTIONS: THERE HAS GOT TO BE A BETTER WAY

Michael Warshauer, Warshauer Law Group, P.C.

Daubert motions are one of the most time consuming and uncertain aspects of federal civil litigation. In the 20 years since this landmark opinion was handed down, there have been changes in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure relating to expert reports, but there has been no change, or any clear guidance, relating to dealing with Daubert challenges and the tremendous costs to both the judiciary and the litigants. This presentation will suggest alternatives to the present method of handling Daubert issues that will reduce the costs to both litigants and the judiciary, and be consistent with the demands of the Seventh Amendment that juries are supposed to decide questions of fact—not judges.

Social media have changed how we communicate and interact—wall posts, tweets and online videos are now a treasure trove of evidence in criminal and civil litigation. Employment litigator Joel Schroeder discusses the impact that social media are having on litigation—during investigations, discovery and trial. The presentation focuses on emerging case law and commentary, examining how courts are dealing with discovery disputes and applying old evidentiary rules to a new, more dynamic source of media that are often not easily identifiable, authenticated or free of hearsay. 8A11:30AM-12:30 PM: SAN GERONIMO A // THE LONG SHOT: HOW A YOUNG SOLO PRACTITIONER MADE IT TO THE SUPREME COURT ON A QUESTION REGARDING SUMMARY JUDGMENT AND WONDavid Mills, *The Mills Law Office LLC*Presented by the Younger Lawyers Division

After working at a big firm and clerking in federal court, David Mills opened a solo appellate practice in his hometown of Cleveland, Ohio. Little did he realize that just two years later, at 33 years old, he would be featured on the cover of the ABA Journal national magazine for taking a case to the U.S. Supreme Court. In this presentation, Mills will describe how he came to represent a woman named Michelle Ortiz, who was sexually assaulted by a jail guard, won a jury verdict against state officials under the federal civil-rights statute (42 U.S.C. § 1983), and then lost on appeal in the Sixth Circuit. Mills will discuss how he successfully petitioned the U.S. Supreme Court to grant certiorari on an issue of federal civil procedure (regarding the conditions under which the denial of summary judgment can be appealed). In addition to discussing certiorari-stage strategy, Mills will also discuss oral argument at the Supreme Court, and the current state of the law regarding summary-judgment appeals in light of the Court's unanimous decision in Ortiz's favor.

8B11:30 AM-12:30 PM: SAN GERONIMO C // TRENDS IN LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT LAW: A PANEL DISCUSSION

The panel will also discuss the challenges facing the National Labor Relations Board after the D.C. Circuit's Noel Canning decision and other notable court decisions involving equal employment opportunity, social media in the workplace, retaliation, and wage and hour issues.
