

Douglas J. Youngren

Doug Youngren, CPA, JD, is a tax partner in Blackman Kallick's Insurance Practice who oversees all aspects of the firm's insurance tax area. He started his accounting career as an auditor; he has a unique hands-on style that incorporates his knowledge and experience as a CPA as well as an attorney. He has written articles on subjects ranging from offshore captive reinsurance to how a P & C company can convert its capital losses into ordinary losses. He has spoken on numerous occasions including the Federal Bar Association's Insurance Tax Seminar, the Farm Bureau Insurance Accounting conference and the Chicago Chapter of the IASA Insurance Conference.

