CLE – Editing Humanity & Liberty’s Limits

January 30, 2020 • 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

William J. Holloway, United States Courthouse, Jury Assembly Room

This presentation explores the constitutional issues raised by the applications of emerging gene-editing technologies (CRISPR) through the arguments for and against the recognition of a fundamental right to edit humanity.

Instructor: Alexandra Foulkes Grafton, J.D., M.S.
