Things I Wish I Had Known: Tips for First Generation Lawyers

February 5, 2020

4 p.m. – 5 p.m., reception following

Loyola University New Orleans College of Law

526 Pine Street, Main Law School Building, Room 112, New Orleans, Louisiana

The New Orleans Chapter of the Federal Bar Association, Loyola University New Orleans College of Law and Tulane University Law School will co-host February 5 at 4pm at Loyola University New Orleans College of Law. The Honorable Dana Douglas, Magistrate Judge in the Eastern District of Louisiana, will moderate a panel of first generation lawyers discussing relevant issues faced by practitioners with insight learned through their own experiences as a first generation lawyer. Attendees are encouraged to ask questions and stay for a reception following to mingle with presenters. This event is free for law school students and New Orleans FBA members, but registration is required.
