

Training for law enforcement

- Provided by Arc; <https://thearc.org/our-initiatives/criminal-justice/pathway-justice/>
- Awareness training through COPS, which is a common resource for law enforcement; <https://copstrainingportal.org/in-person/just-policing-disability-awareness-training-for-law-enforcement/>
- List of trainings available from DOJ; <https://www.ojp.gov/taxonomy/term/police-training-persons-disabilities>
- Database for all law enforcement trainings available nationwide showing there is no uniform legislative mandates requiring all states provide trainings as they rely instead on the ADA; <https://www.ncsl.org/civil-and-criminal-justice/law-enforcement-training>

Policy

- Texas Driving with Disability; <https://gov.texas.gov/organization/disabilities/texas-driving-with-disability#Law%20Enforcement%20Training>
- Although some positive policy recommendations, Texas Committee on People with Disabilities has not a single recommendation related to law enforcement and policing; <https://gov.texas.gov/organization/disabilities/gcpd-reports>
- Texas only requires one disability specific related course for peace officer licensure; Crisis Intervention Training is mandatory to assist with interactions with individuals suffering from a mental health crisis; <https://www.tcole.texas.gov/course-curriculum-materials-and-updates>